

Vacancy – Superintendent of Schools
City School District of Albany
Albany, New York

The Board of Education of the City School District of Albany seeks a superintendent for our diverse, vibrant, urban district.

Our 1,400 faculty and staff serve our multicultural population of 9,600 students in 17 schools: 12 elementary, three middle, one comprehensive high school with a career and technical center, and an alternative learning center. We also provide community based early childhood programming for three and four year olds. The district offers comprehensive, excellent academic programs based on high expectations for all students.

Sitting on the banks of the Hudson River, Albany's history as the nation's oldest continuously chartered city is complemented by its embrace of today's technology economy. Albany is the capital of New York State and is home to several leading colleges and universities including the world's foremost nanoscience research facility.

The City School District of Albany seeks a dynamic leader with demonstrated success in a comprehensive, racially and culturally varied, urban school district.

Candidates should possess or be eligible for New York State certification as a Superintendent of Schools. The Board is prepared to offer a highly competitive compensation package. Applicants should anticipate a start date around August 1, 2017.

THIS SEARCH PROCESS IS COMPLETELY CONFIDENTIAL. Applicant names and identities will not be revealed. The successful candidate will be introduced publically at the conclusion of this process as the new City School District of Albany Superintendent of Schools.

Brochures will be available after February 13, 2017. All candidates should review the brochure prior to applying. Please submit a cover letter, application, disclosure/consent forms, resume, and letters of reference, NYS Certificate (if available), and graduate transcripts no later than March 31, 2017 to:
