ABOUT THE PROGRAM

The role and scope of the federal government in educational matters continues to be a matter of some controversy. Funding levels have expanded, contracted and been held hostage by our Congress. This is an opportunity for school administrators to see behind the curtain as to the decisions of the United States Department of Education and our national political leaders. Those matters which may be confusing will have clarity at the end of the program.

Her insights on our new Secretary of Education and the current Congress under republican leadership should create for participants a deeper understanding of where we are headed as schools.

ABOUT THE PRESENTER

Noelle Ellerson Ng directs the legislative and advocacy efforts of AASA in Congress and the U.S. Department of Education. She has focused on leveraging the voice of school administrators in all aspects of federal education policy and finance. She speaks regularly to school leaders across our country. Noelle is one of the most important voices on the future of education in the U.S.A. She will be traveling from Washington, D.C. to present to our group.

A B.S. graduate of Nazareth College (Rochester) with a M.S. from SUNY Albany, her work and insights are highly respected and valued by education administrators.
