

Sullivan West CSD Superintendent Vacancy Announcement

The Sullivan West Central School District is seeking an educational leader with a record of accomplishments as an administrator and teacher. The successful candidate will continue to build on what has been achieved regarding student success, strong school pride, and commitment to bringing innovative programs to the District. Key to this person's success will be the ability to continue to bring together the various stakeholder groups to build support for district initiatives and programs.

The Board of Education has identified the following as the most desirable characteristics for the next Superintendent:

- Successful experience as an administrator (superintendent, central office administrator and/or principal) and teacher
- Excellent communication skills, processes, and habits
- Ability to clearly identify problems and develop effective solutions
- Ability to create a positive school culture
- Regularly includes others in decision making
- Proven commitment to improving student achievement, K-12
- Residency preferred - visibility and engagement in the schools and community required
- Professional experience in rural districts preferred

Sullivan West, with a current enrollment of 1,025 students, was created in 1999 through the merger of three smaller districts. Located in Western Sullivan County in the heart of the Catskill Mountains, the area is known for its natural beauty and recreational opportunities. The Bethel Woods Performing Arts Center, which is on the grounds of the original 1969 Woodstock Music Festival, is located nearby.
